

The National Cinco de Mayo Festival

A Maru Montero Dance Company Production

Call for High School Volunteers:

Great Community Service Opportunity!

This free festival offers Latin dance, music, food, workshops for children and a full day of activities for the entire family.

WHEN?

The Festival takes place from Noon until 6:00pm on Sunday, May 4, 2014, at the Washington Monument on the National Mall.

We would need volunteers starting as early at 9:00am that day.

DUTIES include set up of arts and crafts workshops and collateral, staffing Maru Montero Information Booth, VIP tents, the Children's Pavilion, and El Mercado, assisting Stage Manager and dancers with event entertainment needs, facilitating "La Loteria" games in El Mercado, and working closely with event staff.

If you're busy on May 4, then join us on Saturday, May 3 to help assemble handouts and sombreros!

BENEFITS?

Take part in a multi-cultural experience while enjoying a great show. Earn community service hours. Lunch will be provided for volunteers at the Festival.

HOW DO I SIGN UP?
